

By Christopher Simpson

Terry the tennis ball lives in a school PE cupboard with his friends.

One day Aisha took Terry out of the PE cupboard to have a game.

Terry loved being out of the cupboard.
He wanted to explore the world. He hid in a corner at tidying up time.

Everyone went home and the lights went out.

Terry played on the climbing frame. He had a great adventure.

After a while it started to grow dark.
Terry got scared. He wanted his friends.

The next morning Terry was happy to be found and put back in the cupboard. He would never hide again.